Jhajuan's Schedule Tees Him Up for Easy Win Over George

George's team shit the bed and Jhajuan cruised to an easy victory. No one will be "Riding That Meat" this week beside George, again. Despite the gift of -6 points from Packers Defense. Jhajuan won by 30, but only put up 130 this week. Is he on fraud watch?

Dylan Flies By Ben

In another easy matchup, Dylan easily disposed of Ben's team. Brock Bowers showed why he's the king of PPR TE's with a monster game. Meanwhile Ben's third highest scoring player was his kicker. Ben is in for a long season that may already be over.

Cesar Puts BTA Against Joey. Is the Black Magic Dead?

After a black magic victory last week, Joey had his Temu spell turn on him. Achane went out for the season while Cesar's team popped off. Joey's season is over, while Cesar glides to 3-0 and another chance at winning the league in an attempt to be the first repeat champion in Ian Book Believer's League history.

GAME OF THE WEEK:

Vic Ekes Out Win, Denies Jolo's Monday Night Miracle

Vic defeated Jolo's team in a narrow 151.85 to 150 win. Devonta Smith was 1 foot away from a Monday Night Miracle, but Hurts vultured his TD with one second left on the clock. Vic's 49er's popped off this week and Jermiyah Love is showing flashes of future success. Unfortunately for Jolo, the Gibbs show couldn't carry him to the dub.

David Wins the David Bowl

David M's super team prevails again. In what was a promising matchup, David M's team was the highest scorer. Even David G's best performing team would have lost. JSN JSNed and Kittle had a vintage game. The Vikings D tried haunting David M this year, but came up short.

Devon Smacks Dejon's Ahh

Devon's team had a solid all around performance with Brian Robinson (not BRob, Ben) leading the way. Despite Allen's weak week, Dejon couldn't overcome the 6.6 points from TEs this week. Funnily enough, Devon is the beneficiary of the same strategy he's employed before. Kyle Pitts is still a scam artist.
